AMERICAN SECURITY, L.L.C ACQUIRES JANUS SECURITY SERVICES

Saint Paul, Minn., February 12, 2007 – American Security, L.L.C. today announced the acquisition of Wisconsin based Janus Security Services effective January 1, 2007. The Janus acquisition allows for the expansion of American Security's footprint into the Milwaukee market.

"We are excited about this acquisition and its implications for our long-term growth strategy," said Steven J. Klein, President and COO of American Security. "We acquired Martin Security (Madison, WI) in 2004 and see the addition of Janus Security as an important step in expanding our service offerings in Wisconsin."

American Security, L.L.C. has recognized security experience in multi-tenant commercial, industrial, governmental, patrol, parking security and critical infrastructure. Janus Security Services is headquartered in Milwaukee, WI, employs 55 security officers and specializes in governmental, high-rise apartment, parking, industrial, patrol and alarm response services.

"American Security provides highly trained and motivated professionals who are solution driven and uniquely qualified to provide crucial security and risk management services," said Klein.

“Janis has a long history of providing quality service and we look forward to building upon their work in this market.”
